(Herein referred as second party – “B”)

The first and the second party agreed to the co-operate each other, to educate and bring the awareness among the students, focusing girls student of this college regarding women health and human rights. This MOU is done for the period of three years.

Rajkiya Mahavidyalaya Kichha, is a government college situated at Kichha tehsil in Udham Singh Nagar district of Uttarakhand. This college was established in 2019. At present this college has six humanities subject such as Hindi, English, History, Sociology, Political Science and Economics. It has strength of 334 students, out of which 252 are girls and 82 are Boys. Most of the students come from rural background, weaker section and minority community. As a result of this situation they are not getting higher education and not maintaining their health properly. Due to these reasons college is concerned about their education and health related issues. This college is willing to bring gender equality, women's education, their rights and women's health related issues. The Institution is going to take various actions in this regards, specially menstrual disorders and cervical cancer are our major concern. Besides these two, this institution is also seriously concern to adopt other listed programmers of ALDAA. This college is very much sensitized about these issues that's why going to install a sanitary napkin vending machine for the girls with the collaboration of ALDAA foundation.
