

Department Of Political Science

B.A FIRST YEAR

Semester I&amp;II	Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs)
FUNDAMENTALS OF POLITICAL SCIENCE	Program-specific outcomes for students studying the fundamentals of political science include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Foundational Knowledge, Understanding key concepts, theories, and terminology in political science.</li><li>• Critical Analysis, Evaluating political events, policies, and ideologies using analytical frameworks.</li><li>• Research Skills, Conducting effective research and applying qualitative and quantitative methods.</li><li>• Communication Proficiency, Expressing political ideas clearly and persuasively in both written and oral formats.</li><li>• Civic Awareness, Recognizing the importance of civic engagement and informed citizenship.</li><li>• Comparative Analysis, Assessing different political systems and their impacts on society</li></ul> These outcomes equip students for further study and careers in various political fields.

B.A SECOND YEAR

Semester III&amp;IV	Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs)
POLITICAL THEORY AND PRACTICE	Program-specific outcomes of political science theory and practice for students include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Analytical Skills, Ability to critically assess political systems, ideologies, and policies.</li><li>• Research Proficiency, Conducting qualitative and quantitative research on political issues.</li><li>• Understanding of Governance, Grasping the functions and structures of various political institutions.</li><li>• Communication Skills, Articulating complex political ideas clearly in writing and speech.</li><li>• Civic Engagement, Encouraging active participation in civic life and informed voting.</li><li>• Interdisciplinary Insights, Integrating perspectives from economics, sociology, and history into political analysis.</li></ul> These outcomes prepare students for careers in public service, advocacy, and academia.

B.A THIRD YEAR

Semester V&amp;VI	Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs)
INTERNATIONAL POLITICS AND ADMINISTRAION	Program-specific outcomes for students studying international politics and public administration include.. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Global Awareness, Understanding international relations, global issues, and the impact of politics on global governance.</li><li>• Policy Analysis, Evaluating public policies and their implications at local, national, and international levels.</li><li>• Research Competence, Conducting thorough research using diverse methodologies relevant to international and public administration.</li><li>• Communication Skills, Articulating complex ideas effectively in both written and oral formats.</li><li>• Ethical Frameworks, Applying ethical considerations to decision-making in public administration and international contexts.</li><li>• Interdisciplinary Perspectives, Integrating knowledge from economics, sociology, and law into political analysis.</li></ul> These outcomes prepare students for careers in diplomacy, public policy, and international organizations.